This is a highly strenuous physical process. The physical ability test will take place off-site at the address listed above, if the use of an alternate address is needed, you will be contacted with that information before the test date.

This is strictly a pass/fail exam. If you fail the physical ability exam, you will be disqualified, even if you pass the written exam.

Please note, in regards to the physical ability exam, we will give specific instructions on how to perform each exercise, and if the requirements are not met, you will fail the exam. This exam was developed and is required by the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and the City of Owensboro is mandated to require this exam for its police officer recruitment. You should be aware that the way you might perform the physical ability exercises at home may be different than what the Commonwealth of Kentucky requires. For example, push-ups must be done in a certain way, and can be very strenuous. If you haven’t already started preparing for the physical ability exam, you need to be. If you have any questions on this process, please call 270-687-8861.

Dress in comfortable, breathable, and appropriate attire to perform heavy physical activity. You should be prepared for both indoor and outdoor heavy physical activity.

The Passing score for this exam is 70%. Your exam results will be emailed to you.

This is strictly a pass/fail exam. If you fail the written exam, you will be disqualified, even if you pass the physical ability test.

Each time we hold a recruitment process you will need to apply and complete the written and/or physical ability exams, even if you have participated in our recruitment process before.

CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY LIST AND DETERMINATION OF TOP GROUP

Upon the eligibility list being certified in accordance with applicable policy, you will then be notified of your score and if you fall in the initial top group. We hope to certify and email exam results by March 31st. Exam results will not be posted online and may not be provided over the phone.

The eligibility list is produced by ranking the applicants' written exam score from highest to lowest. Initially, only the top group of applicants on the eligibility list will undergo the interview process, and only those recommended to continue in the process from the interview will undergo the background investigation. We may, however, work our way down the list. The top group is determined by the Rule of 5N (e.g., 5 times the number of anticipated vacancies).

Please note that in accordance with applicable policy and law, applicants may be removed from the list at any time. Furthermore, the City of Owensboro is under no obligation to certify the list or offer employment to any person(s) on the list. In the event the list is not certified, the City reserves the right to hold a new recruitment process to establish a list. The City furthermore reserves the right to discard any one or more portions of the testing process, and/or re-conduct such testing if necessary to certify the list under applicable policy and law, at its discretion. Once the list is certified, the City reserves the right to re-certify the list in accordance with applicable policy and law (e.g. when necessary to make a correction, etc.)

Vacancies that exist and/or originate while the list remains active in no way obligates the City of Owensboro to fill such positions.

The eligibility list is valid for one year from the date of certification, until the list has no remaining names on it, or a new list is certified, whichever comes first.

Other than informing you if you are in the initial top group and whether or not you passed the exams, we do not release where you rank on the list. Your standing on the list is subject to change, in accordance with applicable policy and law.

Also note that this process is not the only manner in which we recruit. For example, we reserve the right to recruit via lateral transfer and internal promotion.
